 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE *****

July 19, 2004- 9:30am

ANNOUNCEMENT: National Law Enforcement Explorer Conference at Georgia Tech

DATE: July 19 to July 23 TIME: All day/all week

LOCATION: Several locations on the Georgia Tech Campus (HQ is in Student Center)

WHAT: Police Exploring is a coed division of the Boy Scouts that is for 14-20 year olds interested in law enforcement. The national conference is a week-long event that includes individual and team competitions such as marksmanship, physical agility, drill, driving, police exams, domestic disturbances, hostage negotiation, first aid, traffic accident investigation, bomb threat response, and many more. Explorers attend training seminars sponsored by the FBI, DEA, Border Patrol, Secret Service, and other agencies. There is also a career fair with hundreds of police agencies showing off their departments and recruiting explorers.

NOTE: I will be at this event all week as an explorer group advisor (adult leader) for the Marietta Police Departments post and I will be running a team event, the "Burglary in Progress" scenario. If you wish to stop by our event it will be Tues 20, Wed 21, and Thur 22 from 8am to 5pm each day.

This will be a very time consuming week, so please be patient about other media inquiries, as I will be preoccupied.

Thanks – Ofc. Brian Marshall
